

MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

This voluntary statement has been published in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015. It sets out the steps taken by Lyonsbennett to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking in its business and supply chains.

ABOUT LYONSBENNETT

Lyonsbennett is a limited company producing annual reports, company websites and marketing collateral for private and public companies.

OUR COMMITMENT TO THE PRINCIPLES OF THE MODERN SLAVERY ACT 2015

Lyonsbennett is committed to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and the abolition of modern slavery and human trafficking. As an equal-opportunities employer, Lyonsbennett is committed to creating and ensuring a non-discriminatory and respectful working environment for its staff.

Lyonsbennett recruitment and people management processes are designed to ensure that all prospective employees are legally entitled to work in the UK and to safeguard employees from any abuse or coercion once in its employment.

Lyonsbennett does not enter into business with any organisation, in the UK or abroad, which knowingly supports or is found to be involved in slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour.

OUR SUPPLY CHAIN

Due to the nature of its business, Lyonsbennett is assessed to have a low risk of modern slavery both in its business and supply chains.

Lyonsbennett supply chains are limited and it procures goods and services from a limited range of UK suppliers.

Lyonsbennett has a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and requires its supply chain to comply with this commitment.

APPROVAL

This statement has been approved by Lyonsbennett's Board of Directors who will review and update it annually.
